DETAILED ACTION

The following office action is responsive to the "ELECTION" filed October 8, 2004.

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of Figures 2 and 3 in the reply filed on October 8, 2004 is acknowledged.

Claims 3, 4, and 8-14 withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on October 8, 2004. Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, and 7 are also withdrawn as claiming a permanent magnet actuator (Fig. 5).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

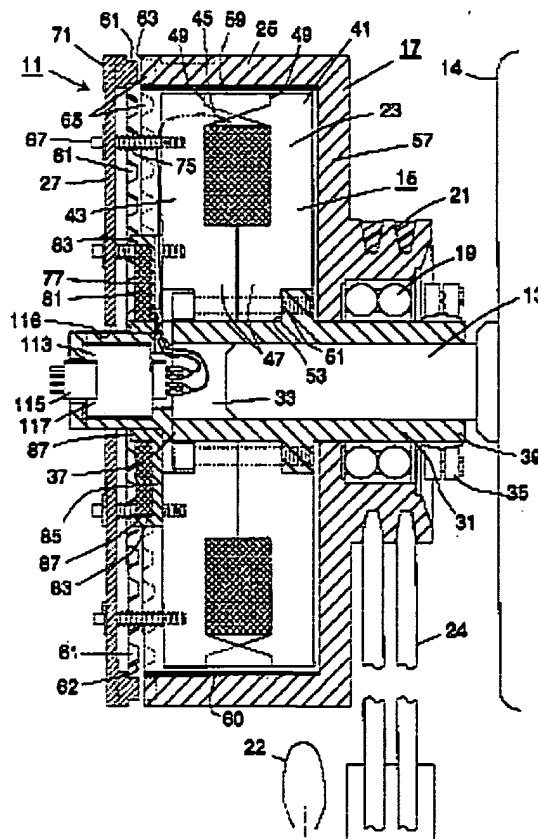

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 15, 17-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Boggs, III ('249).

Boggs, III ('249) discloses a synchronizer (Fig. 1) comprising a first rotatable member (11) with engageable teeth (61), a second rotary member (17) with engageable teeth (63), a clutch collar (27), a permanent magnet (41, 43), an induction member (25), a plurality of permanent magnets (41, 43), and spring means (Fig. 1).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Boggs, III ('249) in view of Johnston et al. ('678).

Boggs, III shows a unitary output member. However, Johnston et al. discloses a torque-transmitting shaft (12) having a splined connection with a rotatable member. Then, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to separate the output member into a rotatable member splined to the output shaft to enhance the versatility of the device.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 19 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Miller ('373) disclose another engageable clutch mechanism having a magnetic device.
